DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This house appears to have been built in two parts. It is a two story, six bay structure totally sheathed with asbestos shingle siding. All windows have six over six sashes and they are placed irregularly in the walls. Most openings are relatively small in relation to wall area. The house faces south. Its eastern three bays appears to be of frame construction while the western three bays with a central chimney could be of log construction.
